

Shutts & Bowen Participates in 2021 Claim Your Future Showcase

2.12.21

On February 10, attorneys from Shutts & Bowen participated in the 5th Annual Claim Your Future Showcase, organized by the Greater Fort Lauderdale Alliance and Broward County Public Schools' Career & Technical Education Department. The goal of the Showcase is to expose high school juniors to all of the companies and career pathways that are available to them after they finish their education, with the hope that they will choose to live and work in Broward County in the future.

Fort Lauderdale Managing Partner Joseph M. Goldstein and real estate partner Brendan Aloysius Barry participated at a virtual company booth. Students were able to connect with the team and ask questions about their anticipated career paths. Joe and Brendan shared how they decided to pursue a career in law, gave advice on how to be successful in any career, and stressed the importance of education in the pursuit of the students' professional goals.
