

Shutts & Bowen, Partners Recognized in 2025 World Trademark Review 1000

2.5.25

Shutts & Bowen LLP was one of only ten Florida law firms recently named in the 2025 World Trademark Review 1000 list. In addition to the firm's recognition, Tampa partner Woodrow "Woody" Pollack and West Palm Beach partner Patricia Flanagan were identified as top trademark professionals by the publication.

WTR 1000 recommends law firms and individual practitioners in the trademark field and identifies the leading players in key jurisdictions globally. Assessments are a result of extensive phone interviews with hundreds of lawyers and clients, and a written submission from each firm.

According to World Trademark Review, "stepping into the limelight this year, "exceptional firm" Shutts & Bowen excels in litigating complex trademark disputes and crafting strategic IP portfolios. Renowned for delivering thorough and efficient services while staying mindful of clients' budgets, the firm leverages its bench of veteran attorneys with deep global expertise to prosecute and enforce trademark rights both in the United States and internationally."

Woody and Patricia were two of only 30 recognized attorneys in the state of Florida on the WTR 1000 directory. The international publication's 2025 directory, which focuses exclusively on trademark practices and practitioners, has firmly established itself as the definitive resource for those seeking world-class legal trademark guidance.
