Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tampa and Sarasota offices have been recognized by the Tampa Bay Business Journal among the 2026 Largest Law Firms in Tampa Bay.

The ranking is based on the total number of attorneys practicing in the Tampa Bay market and reflects the firm's continued strength and growth in the region, with Shutts earning the No. 15 spot on the annual list of over 150 local law firms.

The Tampa Bay Business Journal list highlights leading law firms across the region, providing key data such as local attorney headcount and firmwide capabilities across core practice areas. Shutts & Bowen's placement among the top firms underscores its long-standing presence and competitive position in one of Florida's most dynamic legal markets.

This recognition adds to a series of recent regional honors for the firm, including rankings by the Orlando Business Journal and the South Florida Business Journal, demonstrating the firm's consistent performance and statewide reach.

"We are proud to be recognized among Tampa Bay's leading law firms and grateful to our attorneys whose work continues to strengthen our presence in this evolving market," said Amanda Buffinton, Managing Partner of the Shutts Tampa office.

"We are pleased to be recognized for our firm's commitment to the Tampa Bay region generally and the Sarasota-Manatee communities specifically," said E. Zachary Rans, Managing Partner of the Shutts Sarasota office. "Shutts is dedicated to providing the legal resources necessary to serve our communities' broad and sophisticated legal needs."
