

Shutts & Bowen Represents Lender in $7.6M Wynwood Deal

9.23.21

Bridgeland, a balance sheet lender focused on providing short-term, senior-position commercial real estate bridge loans targeting opportunistic and value-add transactions in the Southeast and Central U.S., recently closed on a $7.6 million loan of an owner-occupied acquisition in Wynwood. The lender was represented by Fort Lauderdale partners Brendan Aloysius Barry and Edwin J. Stacker. Miami partner Michelle G. Handler is involved in client relations.

The retail asset includes 13,700 leasable square feet of space, benefiting from its central location in Miami's Wynwood neighborhood – a globally recognized destination for art and entertainment and the center of Miami's rising technology industry. The Shutts team was able to secure the loan in under four weeks to meet the sponsor's expedited closing time.
