

Shutts & Bowen Tampa and Sarasota Offices Recognized as 2025 'Best Places to Work' by TBBJ

Tampa Bay Business Journal
2.20.25

The Tampa Bay Business Journal has recognized Shutts & Bowen once again as a '2025 Best Place to Work' honoree in the extra-large business category.

The 60 selected companies in the Tampa Bay Business Journal's 'Best Places to Work' are categorized into size groups, from small (10-24 employees) to extra-large (100+ employees). Rankings for the honorees are determined by a third-party service which surveys employees from companies to be evaluated for communication and resources, individual needs, manager effectiveness, team dynamics and trust in leadership.

"We are truly honored to once again be recognized by Best Places to Work," said Amanda Buffinton, Managing Partner of Shutts & Bowen's Tampa office. "This recognition reflects our dedication to cultivating an environment that promotes collaboration, trust and professional development to ensure that our employees feel valued and empowered to achieve their best."

The TBBJ's final rankings will be revealed at the '2025 Best Places to Work' event on April 17, 2025, at the Raymond James Stadium in Tampa.
