

Shutts & Bowen at the 2025 Federalist Society Florida Chapters Conference

2.6.25

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to have sponsored the Federalist Society's Annual Florida Chapters Conference, held January 31st through February 1st, 2025 at Disney's Yacht & Beach Club Resort.

At the event, Shutts partner Dan Nordby spoke on a panel titled, "Retrospectives on 25 years of Judicial Reform in Florida." During the panel, Dan and other speakers discussed how Florida state courts have been transformed. They also considered "25 years of judicial appointments in Florida, discussing how the roles of the executive, the JNC, and the conservative legal movement have contributed to these transformations."

Also representing Shutts at the conference were attorneys Bud Bennington, Ben Gibson, Denise Harle, Alyssa Cory, Amber S. Nunnally, Tara Price, Rene Gonzalez-Llorens, Brett Renton, Patricia Flanagan, Deedee Bitran, Kassandra Reardon, Elise Engle, Shiza Francis and Shirley Grinstein.

Founded in 1982, the Federalist Society is an organization of 90,000 lawyers, law students, scholars, and other individuals with a mission to sponsor fair, serious, and open debate.
