

Shutts & Bowen Elevates Three Attorneys to Partnership

1.30.24

Shutts & Bowen LLP announced today the elevation of three new partners, effective January 1, 2024.

“Each year, we are excited to elevate our newest partners, and 2024 is no exception,” said Firmwide Managing Partner Jack C. McElroy. “These attorneys represent the highest level of client service and satisfaction, and we know they will continue to provide leadership as partners at Shutts & Bowen.”

The new partners are listed below:

Alyssa L. Cory is in the Tampa office, where she is a member of the Appellate Practice Group. She focuses her practice on appeals and civil litigation support in both federal and state courts. She assists clients with developing and framing key legal arguments on appeal.

Matthew D. Foley is in the Orlando office, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. He focuses his practice on real estate transactions, property acquisition and development, commercial leasing, land use and zoning, easements, commercial contracts and general real estate matters.

Eduardo H. Rivero is in the Miami office, where he is a member of the Class Action and Mass Litigation Practice Group. Eduardo focuses his practice on personal injury protection litigation, specializing in the interpretation and application of automobile insurance policies.

“Alyssa, Matt and Eddy offer a broad array of quality services to our clients,” said Francis E. Rodriguez, Chair of Shutts & Bowen’s Executive Committee. “Their hard work and dedication are important firm hallmarks that contribute to our growth trajectory.”
