

Shutts & Bowen Hosts Special Lecture with Argentinian Representatives

12.11.25

On Monday, December 8, Shutts & Bowen LLP hosted a lecture on US-Latin American relations featuring two distinguished diplomatic figures: Carlos Bernardo Cherniak, Permanent Representative of Argentina to the Organization of American States (OAS), and Dr. Michael E. Bogachek, Executive Director of the OAS.

The program combined Ambassador Cherniak's reflections on the current challenges facing the Inter-American system with Dr. Bogachek's assessment of how the OAS can enhance its efficiency and effectiveness, offering a comprehensive perspective on the future of hemispheric cooperation.

The event, organized by consulting attorney Patrick Murray, was attended by clients and friends of the firm as well as Shutts attorneys, including Executive Committee Chairman Francis E. Rodriguez; International Litigation & Arbitration Practice Group Leader Alette Rodz; members of the Tax & International Law Practice Group, International Litigation & Arbitration Practice Group, Corporate Practice Group; and more.
