Shutts & Bowen LLP's Orlando office has once again been featured among the Orlando Business Journal's rankings of Central Florida law firms, with recognition in the publication's 2023 "Labor Law Firms" list.

The 2023 "Labor Law Firms" list ranked Shutts No. 12 among other local and nationally-recognized firms. These rankings echo Shutts & Bowen's regional strength, with other notable recognition of the firm's Orlando office appearing in the OBJ's 2023 lists for "Central Florida's Largest Real Estate Law Firms," "Central Florida's Largest Litigation Law Firms" and "Central Florida's Largest Intellectual Property Law Firms." Shutts was also selected as a 2023 'Best Of' award winner in the Labor and Employment category by the Daily Business Review.

The Orlando Business Journal (OBJ) list identifying Shutts include law firms ranked by the total number of attorneys within the respective practice area in Central Florida, denoting Lake, Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties. The OBJ is owned by parent company American City Business Journals (ACBJ), which is the largest publisher of metropolitan business newsweeklies in the United States, with 43 business publications across the country reaching more than 3.6 million readers each week.
