Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tampa office was recently profiled in a "Great Places & Spaces" section of the Tampa Bay Business & Wealth, which detailed the recent expansion and construction of an outdoor terrace in the office.

"While comfortable and inviting outdoor spaces are commonplace in residences, adding such outdoor spaces to commercial office buildings is rare, and this expansion is already proving to be a big hit with our attorneys and clients," said R. Alan Higbee, Tampa Office Managing Partner.

In the article, Alan went on to say that adding the outdoor space has been a huge asset as the office continues to grow, as well as attract and retain top legal talent. The terrace, which was built into the surrounding oak trees with the help of professional arborists, was completed alongside a 6,325 sq. ft. interior buildout of the second floor.
