

State Retirement Commission Elects Jesse C. Dyer as Vice Chair

Tallahassee
5.4.26

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce that Tallahassee Partner Jesse C. Dyer has been elected by his fellow commissioners to serve as Vice Chair of the State Retirement Commission.

Jesse C. Dyer was appointed to the Commission last year by Florida Governor Ron DeSantis, and then confirmed by the Senate. The State Retirement Commission plays a critical role in reviewing final decisions on applications for disability retirement and special risk membership, as well as reexamining retired members receiving benefits and special risk members within the Florida Retirement System. The Commission also holds the authority to adopt rules necessary to carry out its statutory responsibilities.

About Jesse C. Dyer

Jesse C. Dyer is a partner in the firm's Tallahassee office, where he is a member of the Appellate Practice Group. Jesse has extensive litigation experience and handles all stages of the litigation process including as lead attorney at jury and bench trials, numerous court hearings, and a large number of appeals. Practicing in both state and federal courts, Jesse has experience handling complex cases and legal issues, with varied practice areas ranging from insurance and commercial disputes to government, political, and administrative law.

Professionals

Jesse C. Dyer

Practice Areas

Administrative Law and Licensing

Appellate

Community Associations

Constitutional Law

Government Law

Hospitality

State Retirement Commission Elects Jesse C. Dyer as Vice Chair

Insurance

Litigation

Political Law

Offices

Tallahassee