

Thomasina Moore Presents Before the Florida's Office of Inspector General

Tallahassee

1.15.26

Shutts & Bowen LLP Tallahassee partner Thomasina F. Moore presented before the Florida's Office of Inspector General during a training session on sexual harassment in the workplace on December 17, 2025.

During the roundtable training presentation for the Directors of Investigation of Florida's Office of Inspector General, Thomasina addressed ways to prevent sexual harassment in the workplace. She also defined key behavior that may be constituted as sexual harassment, provided guidance to state employees who may feel they are a victim of sexual harassment and provided guidance to supervisors on their responsibilities in responding to sexual harassment.

Following the presentation, attendees provided positive feedback on the useful information provided to the group.

To learn more about the Investigations Section of the Office of Inspector General, click here.

About Thomasina F. Moore

Thomasina F. Moore is a Partner in the Tallahassee office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Appellate Practice Group. Thomasina is board certified in Appellate Practice and Juvenile Law by The Florida Bar. Thomasina represents private sector and government clients and focuses her diverse practice on government, labor and employment, commercial, constitutional, and appellate litigation. She has experience in complex appeals involving interpretation of the U.S. and Florida Constitutions, as well as experience in a broad range of employment matters including allegations of workplace discrimination, violations of Florida's public records act, violations of Florida's public whistleblower act, and policy development.

Professionals

Thomasina F. Moore

Practice Areas

Appellate

Thomasina Moore Presents Before the Florida's Office of Inspector General

Government Contracts

Government Law

Labor and Employment

Litigation

Industries

Government

Offices

Tallahassee