

Timothy Woodward to Participate in Hillsborough County Bar Association CLE Webinar

Tampa

1.29.21

Event Sponsor: Hillsborough County Bar Association

Timothy Woodward, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tampa office and leader of the Construction practice group, will act as the moderator during a discussion on effective construction arbitration techniques for the Hillsborough County Bar Association's (HCBA) upcoming CLE webinar.

Tim will lead a panel of local construction attorneys in their discussion of best practices and practical techniques to employ during arbitration. The CLE program will focus on topics like civility, the value of opening statements and closing arguments, impeachment of witnesses, the presentation of expert testimony, continuous versus split up hearings, discovery disputes, as well as objections, trial briefs and the use of case law. Additionally, the panelists will discuss technology at arbitration, including the use of video or virtual witness testimony.
