

Amanda Buffinton to Speak at the 4th Annual Insurance in the Construction Industry Seminar

Tampa

7.21.20

Event Sponsor: The Seminar Group

Amanda B. Buffinton, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tampa office, will be a featured speaker at the 4th Annual Insurance in the Construction Industry Seminar on August 6-7, 2020, discussing the current state of the law with respect to construction insurance coverage.

Amanda will present on "Ethical Considerations in a Complicated Defense," with co-speaker, Holly Harvey, at 2:30 pm on Friday, August 7, 2020 via live webcast. Her presentation will review the tripartite relationship, conflicts created by Insurer's Reservation of Rights, defending a named insured and an additional insured, wrap program considerations and the "mutually agreeable" counsel requirement. According to the organizer, in addition to ethical considerations in a complicated defense, the two-day seminar will also address recent case law and legislative updates, coverage issues with respect to CGL, Builder's Risk, OCIP and Subguard Policies, use of bonds, Additional Insured endorsements and effective mediation strategies.
