

Daniel Nordby Reappointed to Florida Supreme Court Judicial Nominating Commission

8.31.16

Daniel Nordby, a partner in the Tallahassee office of Shutts & Bowen, was recently reappointed by Governor Rick Scott to the Supreme Court Judicial Nominating Commission \(JNC\).

The JNC selects nominees to fill judicial vacancies within the Florida Court System. Daniel will serve on the JNC for the nominations to replace Justice James Perry in January 2017 and the nominations to replace Justices Barbara Pariente, Peggy Quince and R. Fred Lewis in January 2019.

Daniel's practice focuses on high-profile, high stakes matters of law and public policy. He has served as General Counsel to the Florida House of Representatives, to Florida's Secretary of State during the 2012 presidential election cycle, and to the Republican Party of Florida. Daniel is the Immediate Past Chair of The Florida Bar's Administrative Law Section and has served on its Executive Council for nearly a decade.
