9.23.16

The Daily Business Review named Shutts & Bowen as the winner of its annual Litigation Department of the Year Award for general litigation for a large department.

Shutts & Bowen has more than 130 litigation attorneys state-wide. The cases submitted to the DBR represent our litigators' breadth of experience in handling complex, prominent and precedent setting cases. Our litigators obtained favorable settlements, overcame significant hurdles, and handled multi-million dollar domestic and international claims.

The Daily Business Review will officially recognize the winning firms at their fourth annual event in Miami on November 10. Read the DBR's staff report here (subscription required).
