

Deedee Bitran Participates as a Panelist for Federal Bar Association CLE Event

11.12.19

The Federal Bar Association chapter at the Shepard Broad College of Law at Nova Southeastern University hosted a CLE program on labor and employment law on Friday November 8, 2019. The panel was moderated by Lori Adelson of Adelson Law & Mediation and the panelists were Deedee Bitran of Shutts & Bowen LLP; Shayla Waldon of Akerman; Brian Lerner of Kim Vaughan Lerner LLP; and Zascha Blanco Abbott of Liebler, Gonzalez & Portuondo. The panelists shared with law students and attorneys the various trends in employment law and discussed ways in which attorneys and law students could transition into the field. Bitran encouraged law students to take courses focused on employment law topics, participate in as many writing law student competitions as possible, and actively network to learn from practicing attorneys.

About Deedee Bitran

Alamea Deedee Bitran is an attorney in the Fort Lauderdale office of Shutts & Bowen, where she is a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group. Deedee represents employers, business owners and developers. While in law school, she served as a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Ivan F. Fernandez in the Third District Court of Appeal and as an Articles Editor on the FIU Law Review. She also served as a Legal Research Assistant to Professor Kerri Stone, where she researched and contributed to articles on employment discrimination and harassment.

Professionals

Alamea Deedee Bitran

Practice Areas

Labor and Employment