

Deedee Bitran Participates in FIU Law Employment Lunch & Learn

2.22.18

Fort Lauderdale associate and FIU Law alumna Deedee Bitran was a panelist at FIU College of Law for an Employment and Labor Law Lunch & Learn hosted by FIU Law's Career Planning and Placement Office. The panel was moderated by Professor Kerri Stone and included Elizabeth Johnson of Fowler White, Mendy Halberstam of Jackson Lewis, and Christina Cora of the National Labor Relations Board as co-panelists.

The diverse panel offered guidance to the students by sharing their experiences and discussing their favorite parts of their jobs. They provided insight on cutting edge employment and labor law issues such as the effect of medical marijuana on employment law policies, the change in government labor law policies, the effect of the "me-too" movement, and whether sexual orientation constitutes a protected class under employment laws.

About Deedee Bitran

Alamea Deedee Bitran is an attorney in the Fort Lauderdale office of Shutts & Bowen, where she is a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group. Deedee represents employers, business owners and developers. While in law school, she served as a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Ivan F. Fernandez in the Third District Court of Appeal and as an Articles Editor on the FIU Law Review. She also served as a Legal Research Assistant to Professor Kerri Stone, where she researched and contributed to articles on employment discrimination and harassment.

Professionals

Alamea Deedee Bitran

Practice Areas

Labor and Employment