

Four Partners Selected Power Leaders by the South Florida Business Journal

5.23.14

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce that four partners, Bowman Brown, Steven M. Ebner, Joseph M. Goldstein, and Arthur J. Menor, have been named Power Leaders in Law by the South Florida Business Journal. The four distinguished attorneys were identified as major players and selected based on notable contributions made in their respective specialty areas.

Bowman Brown is Chairman of the firms' Executive Committee and Financial Services Practice Group.

Steven M. Ebner is Co-Chairman of the firm's Business Litigation Practice Group and also serves as the Partner in Charge of the Miami office.

Joseph M. Goldstein is the Partner in Charge of the Fort Lauderdale office, a member of the Litigation Practice Group, and is Florida Bar Board Certified in Business Litigation.

Arthur J. Menor leads the firm's Real Estate Leasing Practice Group as its Chairman and is the Partner in Charge of the West Palm Beach office. He is Florida Bar Board Certified in Real Estate Law.
