

Inspired to make a difference, Sandra Krumbein shares why she became a lawyer

7.7.16

Sandra Krumbein, a real estate partner in our Fort Lauderdale office, has been chosen as one of South Florida's Top Lawyers in the 2016 South Florida Legal Guide. Sandra was also profiled in the publication on what inspired her to be a lawyer and what she enjoys most about her practice.

Before she was an attorney, Sandra was a social worker in New York working with teens aging out of foster care. Often ignored by the system while advocating on behalf of the children, she realized she could make more of a difference working within the system as a lawyer.

The skills she learned as a social worker have proven invaluable to her law career—how to speak to people, solve problems and bringing multiple sides together.

Read the full profile in the latest issue of the South Florida Legal Guide.

About Sandra Krumbein

A Martindale-Hubbell AV® rated attorney recognized as one of the Best Lawyers in America® in real estate law, Sandra regularly represents developers, lenders, bulk purchasers and sellers in all aspects of residential and commercial real estate transactions and development. Sandra is a frequent lecturer on condominium development issues and has also served as a mentor for Nova Southeastern University law students through the Broad Fellowship Program. Read more about Sandra here.

Professionals

Sandra E. Krumbein