

Joshua D. Miron Joins Fort Lauderdale Office

5.15.12

Full service Florida law firm Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce the hiring of Joshua D. Miron as a partner in its Fort Lauderdale office, in the Business Litigation Group.

Mr. Miron's practice primarily focuses on the areas of real property, commercial and construction litigation. He has extensive experience handling all aspects of real estate litigation matters in state and federal courts with a particular emphasis on the representation of lenders and receivers in complex commercial and residential foreclosures. Mr. Miron is well-versed in handling residential and commercial real estate transactions, procuring financing for clients, assisting with land acquisition and commercial and residential lease negotiations. He also routinely represents owners and contractors in construction related disputes. In addition to his everyday practice, Mr. Miron is a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Civil Mediator.

Prior to becoming an attorney, he was a project manager for a national hotel renovation and development firm and as a result, uses his specialized knowledge to his client's advantage.
