

Kristin Drecktrah Paz Speaks at Broward County Bar Association CLE

3.6.17

Kristin Drecktrah Paz recently presented at the Broward County Bar Association CLE titled "Discovery in Arbitration: How to Avoid an Accident" on Friday, March 3, at the BCBA Conference Center.

The CLE covered procedures for managing discovery throughout arbitration, including what parties can and should seek in discovery, drafting arbitration clauses for both private and public sectors, and the challenges of managing and presenting discovery.

Pictured above is the panel of presenters including Trent Walton, U.S. Legal Support; Elaine W. Keyser, Littler Mendelson P.C.; Alison Smith, Weiss Serota Helfman Cole & Bierman, P.L.; Retired Chief Judge Joseph P. Farina, 11th Judicial Circuit & JAMS; Kristin Drecktrah Paz, Shutts & Bowen LLP; and Ardith Bronson, DLA Piper LLP.

About Kristin Drecktrah Paz

Kristin Drecktrah Paz is an attorney in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen, where she is a member of the International Arbitration and Litigation Practice Group. Kristin advocates for clients in their disputes in U.S. courts and before international and domestic arbitral tribunals.

About the Broward County Bar Association

The Broward County Bar Association, a not-for-profit organization, was founded in 1925 to foster courtesy, ethics, and professionalism among Broward County lawyers, to educate the citizens of Broward County on their legal rights, and to provide necessary legal services to Broward County's residents.

Practice Areas

International Litigation and Arbitration

Litigation