

Larry Glick Featured in the LEAP Newsletter

7.31.19

Miami partner Larry Glick was featured in the LEAP newsletter's Volunteer Spotlight. Using his experience in the fields of law and finance, Larry developed a single session educational program for LEAP – the Ladies Empowerment Action Program – on the topics of credit and debt management, which he has been presenting since 2017. Larry also serves as a mentor to the ladies on their business plans.

LEAP provides over 300 hours of instruction in entrepreneurship, employability skills and cognitive behavioral and trauma-informed addiction programming for woman who have been incarcerated. The program connects graduates to housing, jobs and other resources.
