

Lauren Stricker selected as a 2019-2021 Fellow of the Florida Bar Business Law Section

4.25.19

Tampa partner Lauren Stricker has been selected as one of only eight lawyers to serve a two-year term in the Florida Bar Business Law Section's Fellowship Program. The Fellowship Program is designed to recruit diverse lawyers interested in taking on an active leadership role in the Florida Bar Business Law Section.

The Fellowship Program provides leadership training and mentorship, which is designed to assist the fellows in becoming better leaders within the legal profession and the Business Law Section. As a 2019 Fellow, Lauren will work closely with the Business Law Section leadership, will participate in the quarterly Executive Council meetings, and will continue to be actively involved in a number of substantive committees.

About Lauren L. Stricker

Lauren L. Stricker is a partner in the Tampa office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the firm's Creditors' Rights/Bankruptcy and Business Litigation Practice Groups. Lauren represents individual and corporate clients in bankruptcy cases, commercial and criminal litigation, and government investigations. Her practice focuses on insolvency and restructuring, financial recovery and avoidance actions, corporate fraud, and white-collar cases.

Practice Areas

Litigation