

Lee Nelson Named to Tampa Bay Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors

8.12.11

Shutts & Bowen partner, Lee E. Nelson, has been named to the Board of Directors of the Tampa Bay Economic Development Corporation ("TEDCO"), a certified not-for-profit development corporation licensed by the SBA. TEDCO provides economic development and job creation in the Tampa Bay area through private-public partnerships that create innovative, accessible financing for small businesses.

TEDCO offers a variety of loan products and services that are tailor made for specific small business needs, such as SBA Section 504 loans and its award winning Women/Minority Fund Loan Program.

Mr. Nelson heads the Real Estate Group in Shutts & Bowen's Tampa Office. He routinely negotiates, structures and closes a variety of complex transactional matters and is a regular speaker at conferences in his areas of practice.
