

Miami Partners to Present at Bench & Bar Conference

2.25.19

Miami partners Alette Rodz, Steven Ebner, Miranda Lundeen Soto and Kristin Drecktrah Paz will present at the Spellman-Hoeveler Chapter of the American Inns of Court's View from the Bench & Bar Conference, which will be held on Friday, March 1, 2019, at the Hyatt Regency Miami. The full-day CLE & networking event will feature 75 courses and tracks, ranging from mass torts and complex litigation to business law and discovery.

Alette and Steve will participate as panelists during "The Future of Civil Litigation" keynote panel. Panelists will discuss what the future of litigation means for Miami-Dade County.

Alette will also participate in the SuperStars in Trial mock trial. This program will feature more than a dozen of among the most experienced and successful litigators and Judges in South Florida.

Miranda will present during a panel titled "Successfully Mediating Your Case: Advice from Mediators & Counsel." This program will discuss how to effectively prepare for mediation, select the right mediator, avoid common mistakes in mediation and provide tools for negotiating to get the best results for your client.

Kristin will participate on a panel titled "Gaining the Edge in Arbitration & International Law." This panel will explore key concepts of international arbitration; provide an overview of some important areas of international litigation cases in the United States; and discuss legislative and rules updates concerning international arbitration in the United States.
