

Miranda Lundeen Soto to Present at the National Legal Malpractice Conference

3.19.19

Miami partner Miranda Lundeen Soto will participate in a panel discussion at the American Bar Association's Spring 2019 National Legal Malpractice Conference. The conference offers attendees the profession's best programming on legal malpractice issues, developments and trending topics, and unparalleled networking opportunities with legal practitioners from across the United States.

Miranda's panel, titled "The Epidemic of Claims by Non-Clients Against Company Counsel, and What You Can Do About It," will focus on how this trend impacts lawyers who represent corporate clients, who are increasing the subject of claims brought by their clients' shareholders, officers, directors, employees and even corporate outsiders like lenders or transaction counterparties. It also will review what lawyers can do to mitigate the risks of these claims.

The conference, sponsored by the ABA's Standing Committee on Lawyers' Professional Liability, will take place April 3-5 at the Nobu Eden Roc Hotel on Miami Beach.

About Miranda Lundeen Soto

Miranda Lundeen Soto is a partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group. Miranda is Florida Bar Board Certified in Civil Trial Law and has tried more than 50 cases, bench and jury trials. Her practice includes from commercial and business disputes, professional and legal malpractice claims, product liability, complex fraud matters, public policy matters, cases of first impression, high-stakes personal injury cases, franchisee/franchisor litigation, trust and estate litigation and premises liability at the state and federal levels.

Practice Areas

Litigation