

Often Overlooked Tax Incentive Reduces U.S. and Florida Taxable Income for Manufacturers and U.S Distributors

5.28.15

DAILY BUSINESS REVIEW

Manufacturers and other U.S. distributors can take advantage of an often overlooked tax incentive in the Internal Revenue Code to reduce their U.S. and Florida taxable income by forming an Interest Charge Domestic International Corporation, or IC-DISC.

Francis E. Rodriguez, Partner in Charge of the Miami Office, and Logan E. Gans, an Associate in the Tax and International Law Group, explain who this tax benefit would apply to and how to file for it in this Daily Business Review article.
