1.14.13

Shutts & Bowen LLP, a leading, full service law firm, is pleased to announce that Olga M. Pina has joined their Tampa office as a partner. Ms. Pina is a veteran corporate transactional lawyer with more than 20 years experience in corporate, securities, international business and export compliance matters.

An accomplished attorney, Ms. Pina has been a very active member of the Greater Tampa community. She is not only involved in professional organizations such as the Leadership Tampa Alumni, WEL (Women Executive Leadership), Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce, Tampa Bay Hispanic Bar Association, and the America Bar Association International Law Section, Ms. Pina is also committed to community organizations such as the American Heart Association, Faces of Courage, the Saks Style Council, and the Hillsborough Education Foundation's scholarship program. Ms. Pina is the Founding President and Executive Board Member of Tampa Bay Women in International Trade, an organization created to enhance the status and interests of women in the field of international trade.

"Many of us have worked with Olga for a long time and we are thrilled that she has joined the firm," says Alan Higbee, the Managing Partner of the Shutts & Bowen Tampa office. "Olga's skills as an attorney, and her dedication to the greater Tampa Bay community, are a tremendous addition to our growing presence here."

Shutts & Bowen Managing Partner Joseph Bolton adds, "We are very excited to have Olga Pina join us; her legal background is a great match for our firm. Olga's community involvement complements the firm's 100 year history of supporting important community initiatives as well as providing high quality legal services."
