

Partner Alette Rodz to Speak at U.S.-Cuba Corporate Counsel Summit in October

10.1.15

Alette DelPozo Rodz, a business litigation partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen, has been invited as a panelist to the second U.S.-Cuba Corporate Counsel Summit on October 7-8, 2015 in New York City.

Rodz is the Chair of the firm's Cuba task force and a member of the Cuban-American Bar Association. She regularly assists clients with their business prospects in Cuba based on the recent changes in U.S. regulations.

Expecting over 300 high-ranking expert decision and policy makers, the summit features discussions on current and anticipated Cuban economic reforms as well as the legal, regulatory and bureaucratic challenges of investing in Cuba. It is made possible by the U.S. Cuba Trade Alliance, Knowledge@Wharton and Momentum. Shutts & Bowen is a supporting sponsor.
