

Partner Amanda Simmons Luby Attends Second National Thoroughbred Owner Conference

1.15.16

Amanda Simmons Luby, a partner in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen & co-founder of the firm's Equine Law Practice Group, attended the Second National Thoroughbred Owner Conference held the week of January 11 at Gulfstream Park in Hallandale Beach, Fla. Shutts & Bowen co-sponsored a luncheon for attendees on Tuesday, January 12.

This educational and entertaining event was a unique opportunity for thoroughbred owners and those passionate about horse racing. The conference featured informational sessions, live racing, a chance to meet top trainers and other owners, and a keynote address by Jim Rome, a prominent thoroughbred owner and television and radio host.

Pictured above are Partner Amanda Simmons Luby with Chris McCarron, a retired American thoroughbred horse racing Hall of Fame jockey.

ABOUT AMANDA SIMMONS LUBY

Amanda has worked in the horse industry for more than 20 years. She has developed a national reputation as an equine attorney, and represents nationally acclaimed and international clients in both litigation and transactional matters. Amanda is a member of the Florida Thoroughbred Owners' and Breeders' Association and was the Vice Chair of the Kentucky Bar Association's Equine Law Section in 2008-2009.

Practice Areas

Equine Law