

Paul Scheck Answers Questions on Florida's Unemployment Benefits

Tampa Bay Times
4.6.20

Paul J. Scheck, a Labor & Employment partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Orlando office, was recently featured in "Florida's unemployment benefits: We answer your questions," a question-and-answer article by the Tampa Bay Times.

In the article, Paul provides answers to some of the most commonly asked questions Floridians have had about unemployment benefits. The featured article, which is consistently updated with the newest developments and answers to these ever-evolving questions, provides general answers to questions about benefit amounts in Florida, the eligibility of contractors and the self-employed, the application process and other frequently asked commentary. In the piece, Paul offers insight into the application for unemployment benefits, eligibility, entitlement, tips for laid off workers and more.

To read the full article, click here.

About Paul J. Scheck

Paul J. Scheck is a partner in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Labor and Employment Practice Group. A Martindale Hubbell AV® rated attorney, Paul has been named one of the Best Lawyers in America® in Labor and Employment Law. He has worked with employers and human resources professionals for nearly 26 years, and has assisted them through many labor and employment challenges, from corporate policies to wage and hour matters, non-compete claims to discrimination and harassment cases, ADA Title II accessibility claims to unfair labor practice charges. With a sole focus on representing management, Paul is thoroughly familiar with the employment issues that arise in day-to-day operations. This strength allows him to anticipate potential problems and build strategies to help avoid disputes. He also represents clients in litigation, both in state and Federal courts, as well as before administrative agencies including the EEOC, FCHR and NLRB.

Professionals

Paul J. Scheck

Practice Areas

Labor and Employment

Paul Scheck Answers Questions on Florida's Unemployment Benefits

Offices

Orlando