

Shutts & Bowen Attorneys: Making a Difference in Palm Beach County

6.8.15

THE PALM BEACH POST

For the last 37 years, attorneys in the West Palm Beach Office have dedicated themselves to serving clients and the community. Members have demonstrated leadership with various Palm Beach County organizations, including the United Way of Palm Beach County, American Heart Association, Economic Council of Palm Beach County, and more.

Partners Matthew Chait and Rikki Bagatell, who serve on the leadership of the Central Palm Beach County Chamber of Commerce, were recently featured in The Palm Beach Post as examples of leadership and service in Palm Beach County.

ABOUT SHUTTS & BOWEN WEST PALM BEACH OFFICE

Shutts & Bowen's West Palm Beach Office opened its doors in 1978 when one attorney moved from Miami to expand the firm's practice. The office initially concentrated on tax and real estate matters. Today, the West Palm Beach Office is a full service office, with attorneys practicing in business litigation, real estate, corporate, tax, land use, environmental, trusts and estates, probate, and health care matters.

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS:

- West Palm Beach Shutts Attorneys Rikki Bagatell and Matthew Chait featured in The Palm Beach Post

Professionals

Rikki Lober Bagatell

Matthew R. Chait