

Shutts & Bowen Opens Jacksonville Office

5.15.17

Shutts & Bowen announced today it has opened its 8th office, with the addition of five attorneys from the Jacksonville office of Gillis Way & Campbell.

Joining Shutts & Bowen are H. Timothy Gillis, who was named managing partner of the Jacksonville office, partner Jason E. Campbell, partner Catrina H. Markwalter, of counsel Sue VanLeeuwen and associate Morgan Foster.

“Shutts is a 107-year-old statewide firm with an established client base in Northeast Florida. We are a full service commercial law firm and some of the key areas in which we practice are banking and financial services, corporate, real estate and land use, taxation, intellectual property, insurance, health law and life sciences, commercial litigation and construction litigation. We have considered opening a new office in Jacksonville for quite some time, and we think this is the right fit at the right time,” said Micky Grindstaff, statewide managing partner of Shutts & Bowen. “We are excited to open the new office anchored by Tim Gillis and his existing team.”

Gillis said, “With our client mix, our scope of work and our community ties, it made sense to join forces with Shutts & Bowen. We are particularly excited about Shutts’ statewide platform and the firm’s excellent reputation within the legal community.”

Established in 1910, Shutts & Bowen also has offices in Fort Lauderdale, Miami, Orlando, Sarasota, Tallahassee, Tampa and West Palm Beach.

Gillis, a 1995 graduate of Jacksonville University, received his law degree from Florida State University in 1998. He holds a Master of Laws in taxation from Georgetown University and served as a law clerk in the United States Tax Court. Gillis holds an AV Preeminent peer review rating in Corporate Law, Business Law and Taxation from Martindale-Hubbell, and is a former adjunct professor at Florida Coastal School of Law. Gillis is a past President of the Association for Corporate Growth, North Florida Chapter, was Chairman of the 2012 and 2016 AGC Florida Capital Connection, is a past chair of the Transactional Law Section of The Jacksonville Bar Association, and is currently chair of the JBA’s Corporate, Business, and In-House Counsel Committee.

Campbell, a 1992 graduate of the University of Virginia, received his law degree from Florida State University in 1997. Campbell focuses his practice on corporate, business law, real estate and commercial leasing. He has extensive experience representing buyers and sellers in various industries including domestic and international franchise matters. Campbell has also represented credit unions in all facets of their operations. He is a member of the Jacksonville Bar Association, The Florida Bar Business Law Section and the American Bar Forum on Franchising.
