

Shutts & Bowen Tampa a Finalist for TBBJ's Best Places to Work

4.21.17

The Tampa Bay Business Journal named Shutts & Bowen a finalist in their 2017 Best Places to Work.

Employees of nominated companies were asked to complete an online survey conducted by Quantum Workplace. The survey measured categories such as team effectiveness, trust in senior leaders, feeling valued, compensation and benefits. Companies were ranked and finalists were chosen in each size category according to their overall scores. Shutts was recognized in the "Bigger" category.

Finalists were honored at an event at Whiskey Joe's on April 20. A full list of finalists can be found here.
