

Shutts & Bowen's Alexander I. Tachmes appointed to The Juilliard Council

11.30.17

Shutts & Bowen is pleased to announce that Alexander I. Tachmes, a partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, has been appointed to The Juilliard Council.

"It is an honor to be selected to serve on The Juilliard Council," said Tachmes, who is Chair of Shutts & Bowen's Land Use and Government Relations Practice Group and a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. "Juilliard is one of the most prestigious performing arts schools in the world. I look forward to helping the School in its pursuit of excellence and in its goal of producing the world's finest musicians, dancers and actors."

Founded in 1905, the New York City-based school is located on the campus of Lincoln Center and is recognized as the most celebrated performing arts school in the world. The Juilliard School offers undergraduate degrees, as well as master and Ph.D. programs in music, dance and drama, and accepts only a small percentage of applicants each year.

The Juilliard Council meets regularly and provides advice and financial support to The Juilliard School.

A Martindale-Hubbell AV® rated attorney, Tachmes concentrates his practice in the areas of governmental matters, including land use and zoning, public-private transactions, competitive bidding and lobbying, and commercial real estate transactions, including hospitality matters. He is a published author on government contracts compliance and a lecturer and panelist on hospitality and tourism topics.

Tachmes previously served as Vice President and a member of the Board of Miami City Ballet. Tachmes also served for several years on the Board of the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts, including as a member of the Executive Committee, the Finance and Operations Committee and the Management Committee and as Assistant Treasurer. In addition to Alex's work as a board member of the Ballet and the Arsht, Alex and his firm also handled many legal matters on a pro bono basis for both organizations.

About The Juilliard School

Founded in 1905, The Juilliard School is a world leader in performing arts education. Juilliard's mission is to provide the highest caliber of artistic education for gifted musicians, dancers, and actors from around the world so that they may achieve their fullest potential as artists, leaders, and global citizens. Located at Lincoln Center in New York City, Juilliard offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in dance, drama (acting and playwriting), and music (classical, jazz, historical performance, and vocal arts). Currently more than 800 artists from 44 states and 42 countries are enrolled at Juilliard, where they appear in more than 700 annual performances in the school's five theaters; at Lincoln Center's Alice Tully and David Geffen Halls and at Carnegie Hall; as well as other venues around New York City, the country, and the world. Beyond its New York campus, Juilliard is defining new directions in global performing arts education for a range of learners and enthusiasts through The Tianjin Juilliard School, K-12 educational curricula, and digital education products.
