Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to once again have been ranked among the top Central Florida law firms in the Orlando Business Journal's annual lists for both Litigation and Intellectual Property firms.

Among the firms named to the 2020 "Central Florida Litigation Law Firms" list, Shutts was the top ranked business litigation firm not specializing in personal injury or insurance defense. The firm jumped two spots from the 2019 list, ranking No. 4 in the 2020 "Central Florida Litigation Law Firms" list and No. 16 on the "Central Florida Intellectual Property Law Firms" list.

The Orlando Business Journal (OBJ) lists identifying Shutts rank law firms by the number of litigation attorneys and intellectual property attorneys within firms in the Central Florida area, denoting Lake, Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties. The OBJ is owned by parent company American City Business Journals (ACBJ), which is the largest publisher of metropolitan business newsweeklies in the United States, with 43 business publications across the country reaching more than 3.6 million readers each week.
