

Shutts Tampa Team Recognized for Pro Bono Work

4.25.18

On Thursday, April 19, Tampa paralegal Katherine Kobos received the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit's 2018 Outstanding Pro Bono Service by a Paralegal Award at the Eleventh Annual Pro Bono Service Awards. Kathy has been instrumental in the firm's efforts to support Project H.E.L.P. in the Tampa area. Through this project, she has made a true difference in the lives of the community's homeless and indigent population.

In speaking of Project H.E.L.P., Ella Shenhav noted, "We could never have accomplished half as much as we have without Kathy's tireless work."

Several Shutts attorneys were also recognized for their pro bono efforts as Lapel Pin Recipients. They are listed below.
