

Tiffany Comprés Presents Force Majeure Webinar

4.16.20

On Thursday, April 30, Miami partner Tiffany Comprés will present during a webinar titled “Can Force Majeure Save Your International Transactions?” The online event is being hosted by the Organization for Women in International Trade.

Tiffany will be focusing exclusively on force majeure under the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. The webinar will be helpful to those in the global supply chain who do not have formal written contracts with force majeure clauses in them.

About Tiffany N. Comprés

Tiffany N. Comprés is a partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the International Arbitration and Litigation practice group. Tiffany is a litigator who represents clients in disputes across multinational borders. She is uniquely qualified to help companies in international disputes: she holds two Masters of Law in international law and arbitration, is one of only 51 attorneys in Florida board-certified as an expert in international law, speaks four languages, and has worked in Italy, France, and the United States. She represents clients in Florida and throughout the world.

Practice Areas

International Litigation and Arbitration

Offices

Miami