

Tiffany Comprés Selected as a DRC Arbitrator

7.31.19

Miami partner Tiffany Comprés has been selected to join the Fruit & Vegetable Dispute Resolution Corporation's roster of arbitrators.

The DRC provides the international fruit and vegetable industry with specialized mediation and arbitration services to resolve issues in a timely and cost-effective manner. Members of the DRC subscribe to a common set of trading standards and responsibilities that promote fair and ethical trade of produce entering the North American marketplace. The organization strives to educate members as to best practices in order to avoid disputes in the first place, and its dispute resolution model is designed to reduce risk and facilitate trade between members. When necessary, the organization provides members with fast, fair and enforceable dispute resolution services.

About Tiffany N. Comprés

Tiffany N. Comprés is a partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the International Arbitration and Litigation practice group. Tiffany is a litigator who is uniquely qualified to help companies buy and sell goods across borders and resolve international business disputes: she is one of only 34 attorneys in Florida certified as an expert in international law, speaks four languages, and has practiced in Italy, France, and the United States.

About the Fruit and Vegetable Dispute Resolution Corporation (DRC)

The Fruit and Vegetable Dispute Resolution Corporation (DRC) is a non-profit, membership-based organization serving the produce trade. In addition to consultation, mediation, and arbitration, the DRC works closely with industry associations and governments on behalf of its members to reform legislation, make federal inspections more accessible, develop best practices, and level the playing field for participants. Learn more about the organization here.

Practice Areas

Litigation