

Wellington Hotel Plans Face Legal Fight

5.12.17

An article in the Palm Beach Post discusses Mark Bellissimo's plan for a hotel and condos on the International Polo Club property.

Partner Matthew Chait, attorney for the Jeremy Jacobs family of Wellington, filed a legal complaint alleging that Wellington improperly brought the plan to the advisory board without getting a completed traffic study.

Matt was quoted in the article as saying, "Regardless of the situation, the Village is obligated to ensure development applications are complete, that the law is followed, and that any proposal and its impacts are clearly articulated to the public before they certify it. Rules should not be broken to benefit one developer, and fast-tracking major changes is doing a disservice to all Wellington residents."

About Matthew R. Chait

Matthew Chait is a partner in the Business Litigation Practice Group in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP. A Martindale-Hubbell AV® Preeminent™ rated commercial litigator, Matt has been recognized by the Daily Business Review as a top 40 attorney under 40 and as a Rising Star by Florida Super Lawyers. Matt focuses his practice on real estate and creditors' rights matters, as well as complex commercial disputes.

Professionals

Matthew R. Chait