

SINGLE FAMILY RENTAL

The attorneys at Shutts & Bowen possess a wealth of experience within the single-family rental industry. Since 2013, when the “SFR” industry was in its early stages, we have helped owners, operators, financial services firms and builders navigate the myriad of legal challenges faced in the industry at any project phase - from acquisition to ongoing operations, all the way through disposition. Shutts attorneys are members of the National Rental Home Council (NRHC) and leaders of the Legal and Legislative Committee within the NRHC, as well as founding members of the Florida Chapter of the NRHC.

Our multidisciplinary team of attorneys encompasses a broad range of practice areas, including real estate, leasing, construction, administrative law and licensing, labor and employment, environmental, land use and zoning, class action and litigation. From licensing and compliance matters to tenant issues and response to governmental investigations, our deep bench of knowledgeable attorneys are equipped to handle a wide range of SFR matters in a timely and efficient manner. Our legal experience in the single-family rental market includes, but is not limited to, matters related to:
